COVID-19 safety policy

The training activity rooms used for projects implemented at HSGN main office are big enough to host 16 trainees + 2 trainers (+ potentially 1 observer taking notes to report how did the sessions go). However, it is recommended to pay particular attention on maintaining social distance. Acknowledging the threat of the global pandemic and the challenge of complying with social distances during the training activity, the organizers have introduced the following measures that applies to all until further notice:

1. Participants coming from abroad should have their EU COVID-19 Certificate
In case the participant is tested positive the participant is obliged to:
 - a. Inform the organizers instantly before their departure;
 - b. Undertake self-isolation and follow the instructions of their local health authorities
2. Participants must go directly to the training activity venue after entering Croatia.
3. Participants must wear a face mask during all their travel and their stay in Croatia and change every 4 hours
4. Participants must use hand soap when they have access to tap water or sanitizer before and after each session, meal and when entering in any premises.
5. Any activities that involve singing, body contact and handshakes should be avoided.
6. Visits outside the training venue will be limited. In case visits are organized, the participants are requested to wear face masks from departure to arrival back to venue.
7. If other groups are at the training venue – all socialization with other groups should be avoided.
8. To avoid a bridge between social bubbles, all participants are obliged to eat all meals in the designated area and to be punctual for the mealtime.
9. Participants will notify the organizers if any corona-symptoms occurs during the training activity and must commit to undergo testing and undertake self-isolation instructions in force in Croatia.
10. The AV-equipment should only be used by the training staff and organizers.
11. The participants have no access to the kitchen in the activity room and shall not assist staff in preparing and serving the coffee breaks.
12. It is a collective responsibility of all participants that this policy is respected, and the environment is safe
